Introduction

Zhongshan Donlim Weili Electrical Appliances Co., Ltd was founded in 1980, and it produced Chinese first single-tub washing machine with self-developed technology.

Since the establishment, Weili has stuck to innovation and kept expanding for over thirty years. It has developed from a washing machine producer to a comprehensive household appliances manufacturer supported by research and development with products including microwave oven, electric smoker, refrigerator, ice-cream maker, ice maker, yogurt maker, beer dispenser. Weili has three R&D and manufacturing bases in South China, North China and Southwest China, 23 sales branches and over 3000 service stations across China. Outside China, Weili expands its marketing network to Europe, the USA, South America, Asia-Pacific region, Middle East and Africa. Weili has established itself in both small and large household appliances markets at home and abroad.

As the only "King of Washing Machine Producers" in the industry, Weili has won numerous honors, such as "National First Level Enterprise", "National Total Quality Management Award", "Well-known Trademark", and its products were among the first batch "National Inspection-free Products", and "Famous Brand in China". And as a high-tech enterprise in Guangdong Province, it was awarded "Enterprise Technology Center of Guangdong" and "Zhongshan Engineering Technology Center" in 2011.

Based on its foundation built over thirty years and a big market share, Weili, through the systemic integration of its advantages in products, brands, channels and technology, emerges from the economic wave in China as one of the most shining national brands, which wins the attention and acknowledge from the industry and media for creating the "Weili Mode".

The growth of the brand relies on the support and acknowledgement of the consumers, and is rooted in Weili idea to provide quality products and services for consumers. By adhering to the idea, Weili seeks "technology, fashion, environment-friendliness, innovation, cooperation and win-win" in its product design, function, brand and style. In the spirit of "unity, dedication, exploration, and innovation", Weili realizes its vision of being "an industrial leader in China and a famous brand in the world".
